

WEEK 5 NEWSLETTER

SPEAKERS EVENT

On Wednesday we were honoured to host the highly esteemed philosopher Richard Swinburne along with EPP, Philosophy and PPL society. He delivered an insightful talk to a busy lecture hall on why a Good God Would Allow Suffering, using the principle of God being the greatest benefactor and so what one receives back after experiencing suffering. After this, a Q and A session followed, where he answered questions ranging from Free will to limitation's of God's omniscience.

POLICY HACKATHON

On Friday we collaborated with the Think Tank Society to understand poverty and inequality, and to make policies to reduce inequality in regions across the world, ranging from Chile to Bahrain.

Watch out for a special WTT and PPE report where there could be recommendations laid out from some of the case studies!!

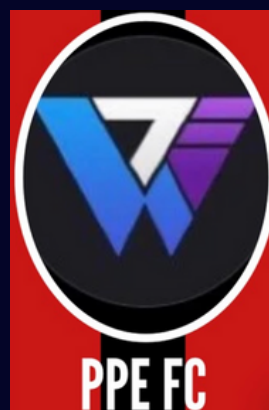

CIRCLE

Everyone was dressed up in their scariest costumes for the Halloween circle which was hosted on Wednesday night in Copper Rooms. Attendance was great (we got to steal taekwondo's tables), and our new Social FREP's, Tom and Alexandra got their first taste of what it's like to run the circle.

FOOTBALL RESULTS

Great start for the PPE FC at the Saturday league with a 2-1 victory over La French. MOTM- Chris: excellent performance in the midfield. The team also continued their unbeaten streak with a robust 3-2 victory over a determined Christian Union side.

MOTM- Stuart: Increasing Goal tally with great accuracy. ⚽⚽⚽
